Supplement No. 49

United Nations • New York, 2011

NOTE

The resolutions and decisions of the General Assembly are identified as follows:

Regular sessions

Until the thirtieth regular session, the resolutions of the General Assembly were identified by an arabic numeral followed by a roman numeral in parentheses indicating the session (for example: resolution 3363 (XXX)). When several resolutions were adopted under the same number, each of them was identified by a capital letter placed between the two numerals (for example: resolution 3367 A (XXX), resolutions 3411 A and B (XXX), resolutions 3419 A to D (XXX)). The decisions were not numbered.

Since the thirty-first session, as part of the new system adopted for symbols of General Assembly documents, resolutions and decisions have been identified by an arabic numeral, indicating the session, followed by an oblique stroke and another arabic numeral (for example: resolution 31/1, decision 31/301). When several resolutions or decisions were adopted under the same number, each of them has been identified by a capital letter placed after the two numerals (for example: resolution 31/16 A, resolutions 31/6 A and B, decisions 31/406 A to E).

Special sessions

Until the seventh special session, the resolutions of the General Assembly were identified by an arabic numeral followed, in parentheses, by the letter "S" and a roman numeral indicating the session (for example: resolution 3362 (S-VII)). The decisions were not numbered.

Since the eighth special session, resolutions and decisions have been identified by the letter "S" and an arabic numeral indicating the session, followed by an oblique stroke and another arabic numeral (for example: resolution S-8/1, decision S-8/11).

Emergency special sessions

Until the fifth emergency special session, the resolutions of the General Assembly were identified by an arabic numeral followed, in parentheses, by the letters "ES" and a roman numeral indicating the session (for example: resolution 2252 (ES-V)). The decisions were not numbered.

Since the sixth emergency special session, resolutions and decisions have been identified by the letters "ES" and an arabic numeral indicating the session, followed by an oblique stroke and another arabic numeral (for example: resolution ES-6/1, decision ES-6/11).

In each of the series described above, the numbering follows the order of adoption.

[53] See Official Records of the General Assembly, Sixty-fifth Session, Second Committee, 7th meeting (A/C.2/65/SR.7), and corrigendum.

its resolutions 48/264 of 29 July 1994, 57/270 B of 23 June 2003, 58/126 of 19 December 2003, 58/316 of 1 July 2004, 59/313 of 12 September 2005, 60/286 of 8 September 2006 and 64/301 of 13 September 2010:

(a) Reaffirmed the importance of the full implementation of its resolutions on the revitalization of its work;

(b) Also reaffirmed the importance of maintaining the intergovernmental nature of the work of the Second Committee while encouraging the participation of relevant experts in the general debate and debates on individual agenda items as appropriate and encouraged, in this respect, the Bureau of the Committee to meet at an early stage to select relevant experts to address the general debate and debates on individual agenda items, and emphasized that such selection should ensure, inter alia, a variety of perspectives and appropriate geographic and gender balance;

(c) With regard to the general debate of the Second Committee:

(i) Decided to maintain the general debate, while bearing in mind the need to avoid unnecessary duplications and overlaps in statements during the general debate and debates on individual agenda items;

(ii) Also decided to maintain the current time limits of seven minutes for individual Member States and ten minutes for delegations speaking on behalf of a group of States during the general debate, and urged delegations to adhere to those time limits;

(iii) Encouraged the Chair of the Committee to continue the practice of providing a summary of the general debate of the Committee;

(d) With regard to debates on individual agenda items of the Second Committee:

(i) Decided to maintain debates on individual agenda items, while bearing in mind the need to avoid unnecessary duplications and overlaps in statements;

(ii) Also decided to maintain, as appropriate, the current time limits of five minutes for individual Member States and seven minutes for delegations speaking on behalf of a group of States during debates on individual agenda items, and urged delegations to adhere to those time limits;

(iii) Further decided to explore possibilities for rationalizing debates on individual agenda items, including, as encouraged in its resolution 59/313, through more interactive and dynamic debates with a view to contributing to intergovernmental decision-making;

(e) With regard to draft resolutions submitted to the Second Committee:

(i) Reaffirmed the sovereign right of Member States to submit proposals in accordance with the rules of procedure of the General Assembly;

(ii) Decided that the Bureau of the Committee would keep multiple mandatory deadlines for the submission of draft resolutions, while ensuring that those deadlines were also realistic taking into account the complexities of proposals to be negotiated, that the Committee would strictly adhere to the deadlines established by the Bureau, and that submissions after their expiration would not be accepted, and that any request made prior to the expiration of the deadlines for their extension would be considered by the Bureau on a case-by-case basis;

(iii) Reaffirmed the recommendations made in its resolutions 57/270 B, 58/126 and 60/286 that General Assembly resolutions should be more concise, focused and action-oriented, and that preambular paragraphs in resolutions of the Assembly should normally be kept to the minimum, and encouraged Member States, when submitting draft resolutions, to provide references to the sources of the relevant language;

(f) With regard to panel discussions and side events of the Second Committee:

(i) Decided to continue the practice of holding panel discussions and side events so as to enhance informal, in-depth discussions and to bring together experts from various fields without prejudicing the progress of the substantive work of the Committee;

(ii) Also decided to restrict the number of panel discussions and side events to a maximum of six at each session of the Committee in order to avoid overloading its work;

(iii) Emphasized the importance of ensuring, inter alia, a variety of perspectives and appropriate geographic and gender balance in the selection of keynote speakers and panellists for panel discussions and side events;

(g) Reaffirmed the need to implement section B, paragraph 9, of the annex to resolution 58/126, in which it stipulated, inter alia, that the full Bureaux of the Main Committees should be elected three months in advance of the next session, in order to foster better advance planning and preparation of the work;

(h) Decided to continue its efforts to improve its working methods, including the rationalization of its agenda, as requested in resolutions 60/286 and 64/301, within the framework of the existing item entitled "Revitalization of the work of the General Assembly".
